ARTICLE 2 NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD CERTIFICATIONS

2.1 As authorized by the National Labor Relations Board, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, Council 5, AFL-CIO, shall be the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit: all full-time and regular part-time Home Health Aides employed by the Employer at its facilities located at 3000 North Douglas Drive, Crystal, MN (the Heathers Manor); 6288 Louisiana Court North, Brooklyn, MN (Waterford Manor); 8500 Tessman Farm Road, Brooklyn Park, MN (Tradition); and 11111 River Hills Drive, Burnsville, MN (the Rivers); excluding LPNs and other supervisors, RNs, Occupational Therapists, professional employees, staffing employees, guards and all other employees. It is expressly understood that this Article shall only be used for purposes of defining the bargaining unit and may not be used for any other purpose. Further, an arbitrator is expressly prohibited from using this Article to interpret any other written provision of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 DEFINITIONS

3.1 Full-Time - A full-time employee shall be defined as an employee who is regularly scheduled to work Thirty seven and a half (37.5) hours per week.

3.2 Part-Time - A part-time employee is an employee who works less than (37.5) hours per week.

ARTICLE 4 NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

4.1 The Union and the employees covered by this Agreement agree that during the term of this Agreement there shall be no strikes of any kind, slowdowns, picketing, bannering, boycotts, sympathy strikes, or any other type of interference, coercive or otherwise, with the Company's operations. The prohibitions against any of the activities referred to above in this Article shall be absolute and shall apply regardless of whether a dispute is subject to the resolution system under the grievance procedure of this Agreement. The Company agrees that there shall be no lockout during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 SCHEDULING AND OVERTIME

5.1 The Company's authority to determine the hours of work and to set work schedules is limited only to the extent stipulated to in this written Agreement. The Company shall designate the work week schedules for each employee.

5.2 The Company shall utilize such pay periods and pay days as exist for non-contract employees of the Company and as may be changed from time to time by the Company. An employee may obtain a yearly schedule of pay days to assist with his/her financial planning.

5.3 Employees shall be paid one and one-half (1 'A) times their respective straight time hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a seven (7) consecutive day work week which may be established, from time to time, by the Company. The Company's right to change the "seven (7) consecutive day work week" described above shall be limited to situations where the Company changes its payroll system. All overtime must be authorized in advance by the Company.

- a. The employer may, with one hour notice require an employee to remain on the job to perform work as a result of absences, call offs, or low staff issues. The employer may do this up to one time per week per employee for up to four hours for each occurrence.
- b. The Employee may, with the employer's consent obtain a replacement.

5.4 The Company shall have the right to establish the specific start and end times of work shifts and shall have the right to modify such start and end times as it deems appropriate in the operation of the Company's business. The Company will give employees a twenty one (21) calendar day notice of a change in the start or end time of a work shift

5.5 Scheduling of Additional Hours and Shifts of Work. It shall be the intent of the Employer that in selecting employees to work additional hours and/or shifts the primary concern of the Company will be to select individuals where this additional work shall not cause the employee to be paid overtime. Further, in selecting individuals to work additional hours or shifts, the individual must be fully oriented and trained to perform the work and, further, must be fully oriented and trained to the specific geographic location where the work needs to be performed. The Company will post a tentative work schedule for the next work period cycle twenty-eight (28) days prior to the first day of the new schedule. For the next seven (7) calendar days part-time employees only may sign up on an availability list indicating additional shifts the employee is willing to work. The Company will use this availability list to fill holes in the schedule prior to posting the final schedule which shall be posted fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the first day of the new work schedule. The Company will contact employees on the availability list on the basis of most to least senior to offer extra shifts. Extra shifts will not be offered if it would cause the employee to work overtime. Should the Company make a good faith error in following the process set forth above, there shall be no penalty assessed for such error.

5.6 Low Census. When it is necessary to reduce scheduled hours based upon resident census; the reduction of hours will be managed by assignment first then by seniority where applicable.

An employee shall be required to use available vacation during any leave of absence. 7.1 Any dispute by an employee relating to the interpretation of or adherence to the written terms of this Agreement shall be considered a "grievance" and shall be handled as follows:

Processing a grievance: It is recognized by the Union and the Company that the processing of a grievance shall be completed during normal working hours as applicable to the aggrieved employee. The aggrieved employee's Union representative, if a designated shop steward, shall be allowed to investigate grievances and present grievances to the Company without a loss in pay; provided the employee and or the Union representative have notified the designated supervisor, it does not result in overtime and coverage is prepared for resident care if necessary.

Step 1 - Any dispute will be discussed informally between the employee and the employee's supervisor. If the subject of the grievance is discipline, the employee may waive Step 1 and submit the grievance directly to Step 2. If the infraction causing the grievance is the subject of an investigation by the state of Minnesota, section 8.2 applies.

Step 2 - If the dispute is not resolved in Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing and the written grievance must specify in detail the alleged violation of the contract citing the specific contractual provisions which are affected as well as setting forth in detail the facts which the employee believes supports the grievance. The grievance must be signed by the employee asserting the grievance. The grievance shall be filed by the Union or its designee with the RN Supervisor or designee, and the employee shall provide a copy to his/her immediate supervisor. This written grievance must be received by the RN Supervisor or designee within seven (7) calendar days after the date of the occurrence which necessitates the filing of the grievance. Within twenty (20) calendar days after submission of the written grievance to the Company, a meeting to consider the grievance shall be held among representatives of the Company and the Union. Within twenty (20) calendar days following the Step 2 meeting referenced above, the Company shall submit to the Union a written reply to the grievance.

Step 3 - In the event the grievance is not resolved in Step 2 of this Article, either the Union or the Company shall have the right to submit the grievance to arbitration. Any demand for arbitration must be received by the other party in writing no later than twenty (20) calendar days after the Company sends the written response from the Step 2 meeting. The Company and the Union shall attempt to agree on a neutral arbitrator who shall hear and determine the dispute. If no agreement is reached, the arbitrator shall be selected from a list of eleven (11) neutral arbitrators to be submitted to the parties by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The parties shall proceed to select an arbitrator alternately striking names from the list. The parties shall flip a coin to see who shall delete first.

The arbitrator shall meet at a time and place agreeable to the parties. The authority of the arbitrator shall be limited to making an award relating to the interpretation of or adherence to the written provisions of this Agreement, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from or modify in any manner the terms and provisions of this written Agreement. The award of the arbitrator shall be confined to the issues raised in the grievance and the arbitrator shall have no power to decide any other issues. The fees and expenses of the neutral arbitrator shall be divided equally between the Company and the Union.

The time limitations set forth herein relating to the time for filing a grievance and the demand for arbitration shall be mandatory. Failure of the Union to follow said time limitations shall result in the grievance being permanently barred, waived and forfeited and it shall not be submitted to arbitration. The limitations provided herein may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties.

ARTICLE 8 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

8.1 Just Cause: The Company may not discipline or discharge an employee unless it has just cause to do so.

8.2 The Company reserves the right to discipline and or terminate employees for Just Cause. The employee shall be notified, in writing, that the employee is to be discharged and shall be furnished with the reason(s) therefore and the effective date of the discharge. Any such discipline or discharge shall be subject to the grievance process as outlined in article 7.

8.3 In the event there is an investigation by the State of Minnesota into an Employee's conduct while working at the Employer, the discipline will be held in abeyance pending the results of the investigation by the state. Should any investigation occur employees may choose to seek Union representation. In the event the employee is found to have violated state law and loses a license to perform work, the Employee may not continue the grievance and will be without recourse to this article 8. In the event the employee is found to have not violated the law, the grievance may proceed.

ARTICLE 9 UNION INFORMATION AND ACCESS

9.1 The Employer will provide the Union with a bulletin board at each worksite location. The bulletin board shall be used for Union purposes only and will be maintained by Union representatives. Postings on the board may include informational items such as but not limited to: Notice of meeting dates, times and locations, contact information for Union representatives and Employee rights under the contract and applicable state and federal laws. 10.1 Definition: Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, seniority shall be defined as the date of hire with Transition Healthcare LLC as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Except for Article 11, seniority will be rank ordered by Building and that term "Building" shall be defined as those separate facilities outlined in Article 2 of this Agreement. Seniority shall be separate as to full-time and part-time employees for the purpose of layoff and recall. An employee shall be assigned to only one Building for seniority purposes and that Building shall be called the Core Building representing seniority for that employee. An employee will have no seniority at any other non-core Building. If an employee permanently transfer to another building and, as a result, is no longer regularly scheduled hours at his/her Core Building, the Building to which the employee is permanently transferred shall then be the employee's new 'Core Building,' in general. The employee will maintain his/her seniority date, as described above, from the employee's previous Core Building in the event of a permanent transfer to a new Core Building.

10.2 Layoff: A layoff shall be defined as the permanent elimination of an employee's position. The Company's decision to make temporary staffing adjustments on a short-term basis due to fluctuation in resident census shall not be considered a "layoff" for purposes of this Agreement. In conducting a "layoff," the Company shall determine the number of positions (full-time and/or part-time) to be eliminated by Building. Layoffs will then occur utilizing the full-time and/or part-time seniority lists and the junior employee by full-time or part-time list shall be laid off and this process will continue up the applicable seniority list (full-time and/or part-time) based upon hours worked until all of the necessary staff reductions have occurred. However, the Company reserves the right to retain a junior employee who is presently qualified to perform all aspects of the job if, in this connection, a more senior employee is not presently qualified to perform all aspects of the available position. In such case, the more senior employee will be laid off and the junior employee retained. The Company will give a fourteen (14) calendar day notice of layoff to the affected employee(s). The term "qualified" as used above shall mean that a person has the specialized unit training necessary for the work area he or she may be assigned.

10.3 Recall: Recall shall be in the order of seniority, assuming the individual to be recalled is presently qualified to perform all aspects of the job and it shall be based upon the needs of the Company. Recall shall only occur to the same Building from where the employee was originally laid off and, further, an employee can only be recalled to the seniority list (full-time or part-time) from which the employee was originally laid off. A laid off employee shall have recall rights for six (6) months measured from the date of layoff. After this time, the laid off employee shall no longer have any recall or seniority rights and shall no longer be considered an employee of the Company. The term "qualified" as used in this Section shall be given the same definition contained in Section 10.2 above.

The Company will post, on or about January 1 and July 1 of each calendar year, the separate seniority list for full-time and part-time employees and this posting shall be by Building.

ARTICLE 11 JOB POSTING

11.1 The Company shall post all job vacancies for five (5) calendar days at all Buildings. The posting will identify that the shift(s) for the position will be variable and will identify the Building where the vacancy exists. Employees will indicate to the Company in writing, their interest in being considered for the vacant position. The Company will consider employees and non-employee applicants for the position. The Company will hire the person it deems to be the most qualified applicant for the position.

Any absence over three (3) consecutive scheduled shifts will require a doctor's statement in order for the employee to return to work.

14.3 An employee who is unable to report to work due to illness or injury must call in at least two (2) hours prior to the employee's assigned shift on each day the employee is absent from work.
