4.3 All employees shall be scheduled a one-half (1/2) hour lunch break.

Employees do not earn eight (8) hours of sick leave in months in which they will miss twenty-one (21) working days due to illness.

8.2 Sick leave may be authorized for the following reasons with limits as specified:

(a) For illness or injury, dental or medical treatment for the employee. Sick leave may be used for a sick or injured child in accordance with Minnesota Statutes. Sick leave usage by the employee may be subject to approval by the department head. The Employer may require verification for an absence of three (3) days or more, from a recognized medical authority attesting to the necessity of the leave, ability to return to duty, or other information deemed necessary.

(b) Employees shall be able to use up to 160 hours of accrued personal sick leave per year to care for an adult child, spouse, sibling, parent, grandparent, or step-parent. "Spouse" does not include unmarried domestic partners. Family care leave uses a rolling 12-month period measured backward from the date leave is taken and continuous with each additional leave day taken. Family care leave cannot be carried over to a subsequent year and Employees shall not be eligible for pay for any unused family care leave. Proof of sickness or disability will need to be provided for any family member.

(c) A male employee shall be granted five (5) days of sick leave for the birth or adoption of his child.

Existence and extent of illness or disability must be verified by a written statement from a medical doctor when requested by the department head or his or her designee.

8.4 Should illness occur while an employee is on vacation, the period of illness may be charged to sick leave and the charge to vacation reduced accordingly. An employee requesting such a change may be required to submit a written statement from a physician attesting to illness and the period of disability.

8.5 Employees injured during the performance of their duties for the Employer and thereby rendered unable to work for the Employer will be paid the difference between the employee's regular pay and Workers Compensation insurance payments for a period not to exceed ninety (90) working days per injury not charged to the employee's vacation, sick leave, or other accumulated benefits, after a five (5) working day initial waiting period per injury. The five (5) working day waiting period shall be charged to the employee's sick leave account less Worker's Compensation insurance payments.

If recovery is not complete, an additional recovery period not in excess of thirty (30) sick leave days may be granted. Sick leave shall then be deducted on a prorated basis with no deduction of sick leave being made for that portion of the employee's absence which is covered by Workers Compensation insurance. No employee can receive more than the

After the initial period of unpaid leave for FMLA purposes, an employee must substitute accrued paid vacation time for any part of a family/medical-leave taken for any reason. Accrued sick leave may only be used in the case of the illness or medical disability of the employee or the employee's child.

- B. When an employee has used accrued paid time for a portion of family/medical leave, the employee may request an additional period of unpaid leave to be granted so that the total of paid and unpaid leave provided equals 12 weeks.

(c) The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. ARTICLE XXII. EMPLOYER AUTHORITY/EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

22.1 Employer Authority

(a) The Employer retains the full and unrestricted right to operate and manage all personnel, facilities, and equipment; to establish functions and programs; to set and amend budgets; to determine the number of personnel; to establish work schedules; and to perform any inherent managerial function not specifically limited by this Agreement.

(b) Any term and condition of employment not specifically established or modified by this Agreement shall remain solely within the discretion of the Employer to modify, establish, or eliminate.

(c) Prior to contracting or subcontracting any work performed by employees covered by this Agreement, the Employer or its designee agrees to meet and confer with the Union to discuss possible ways and means to minimize the elimination of positions covered by this Agreement.

22.2 Employee Rights

(a) Employees shall have the right, freely and without fear of penalty or reprisal by the Employer to join and participate in the Union.

(b) Employees choosing to participate in the internal affairs of the Union as an officer, steward or other capacity, may do so without fear of reprisal by the Employer for such participation consistent with the employee's job duties and responsibilities and the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXIII. WAIVER

This Agreement shall present the complete agreement between the Union and the Employer.

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make requests and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the complete understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union for the term of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated, to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXIV. TERMINATION

This agreement shall be effective as of January 1, 2016, and shall remain in full force and effect through December 31, 2017. It shall be automatically renewed from year to year thereafter unless either party shall notify the other, in writing, by November 1, 2017, that it desires to modify this Agreement. This Agreement shall remain in full force and be effective during the period of negotiations or until notice of termination of this Agreement is provided to the other party.
