

Hello AFSCME CAPRW Team,

With a mix of happiness for her and sadness for us, I'm writing to share that Virginia Graham has retired.

Virginia has been part of the CAPRW community for over 40 years—first enrolling her own children, then serving as a parent volunteer, and eventually becoming a full-time teacher. Along the way, she was also deeply involved in our union, spending many years advocating for her co-workers as AFSCME President. She leaves behind a powerful legacy of dedication, care, and leadership.

Virginia will be greatly missed, and we wish her all the best as she enjoys new adventures and quality time with her family in retirement.

Below is a list of your current Union Officers:

- Lori Schmit, President
- Ryan Ries, Vice President
- Charles Muindi, Treasurer
- Secretary, Vacancy

If you're interested in becoming more active in your union, please reach out! We're also planning to offer steward training in the new year, so stay tuned for more details.

In solidarity,

Lori Schmit

President, AFSCME CAPRW
