

AFSCME Workers in House District 54A,

This election matters for working people and so does your voice!

AFSCME Council 5 is hosting an AFL-CIO Day of Action in Shakopee on Saturday, October 10, and we're asking members to join us for door knocking and conversations with voters.

The decisions made in this election will have a real impact on working families, our communities, and the issues that matter to union members. When AFSCME members get involved, we make sure working people have a voice in those decisions.

Whether you're an experienced volunteer or this is your first time door knocking, we'd love to have you join us.

Together, we can make a difference. Let's get out there and make our voices heard!

In solidarity,
Kent Eken
Political Action Director
AFSCME Council 5
